We Were Here: Stories from Early Chinatown

Heritage Park's Gasoline Alley Museum welcomes a new exhibit from Jan. 14 - April 30, 2023; We Were Here: Stories from Early Chinatown!

Learn about Chinese history on the prairies through art and imagination, discover fictional stories written by members of the Chinese community and explore two iterations of Chinatown in Calgary.

Heritage Park is honored to partner with Lougheed House, the original creators of the exhibit, and host the Chinatown exhibit to tell the diverse stories of the Chinese community in early Western Canadian history.

Entry to the We Were Here: Stories from Early Chinatown exhibit is included with your Gasoline Alley Museum admission!

Heritage Park launches Podcast – Stories From The Park

Heritage Park in Calgary, Alberta has launched a new podcast – Stories From the park – where history lovers can learn about the diverse stories of those people who shaped Prairie and Western Canada's history. From history makers in the Black and Punjabi communities to what actually goes into running a living history museum, Stories From The Park is loaded with fun facts and interesting anecdotes about the people who came to this land, long before we were here.
